

Featured Content

Did You Know?

We're the largest subrogation-only firm in the country. Get to know us and see why we're uniquely equipped to maximize recoveries for you.

Attorney Spotlight: Zach Groover

Our Attorney Spotlight series highlights the skilled attorneys whose expertise and dedication allow our firm to achieve more for our clients.

Meet Zach Groover. A veteran attorney who leads our Texas office and a longtime Texas resident, Zach is a graduate of Baylor University and UT Austin. A married father of four, he enjoys running and coaching youth sports in his free time.

Watch the interview with Zach, and read the full Q&A, where he explains how he came to Stutman Law and the Plano office's role in serving our clients in and around Texas.

NASP 2022 Annual Conference

Our attorneys will be participating in four different speaking sessions at the NASP 2022 Annual Conference in Marco Island, Florida from November 6th – 9th. Learn more below!

Know Your Role—the Interplay of Experts Throughout Your Subrogation Cases

Thomas Paolini and Michael Wallace will discuss the role experts play in subrogation cases, from the initial stages of investigation all the way through trial.

Don't Leave Your Subrogation Settlement to Luck

Michael Wallace and Alexandra Torriero will share some settlement negotiation tips with you, including common reasons that settlements fall apart and what counsel can do to avoid last-minute dealbreakers.

Building a Worker's Compensation Recovery From a Construction Accident

John Popilock will cover the leading causes of construction site injuries, as well as the interplay of governmental and technical codes in these types of worker's comp subrogation investigations.

Code Compliance / Process Safety in the Cannabis Industry

Jared Elster will speak about the fire and explosion risks at marijuana growing and processing facilities and the importance of code compliance and specific fire protection mechanisms at these facilities.

Are you following Stutman Law?

For frequent news, updates, and information, make sure to follow us on LinkedIn.

Follow Stutman Law

